Independent Auditors' Report

Mutual Aid Fund Trust
United Public Workers,
AFSCME, Local 646, AFL-CIO

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Mutual Aid Fund Trust of United Public Workers, AFSCME, Local 646, AFL-CIO as of December 31, 1998 and 1997 and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Trust's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Mutual Aid Fund Trust of United Public Workers, AFSCME, Local 646, AFL-CIO as of December 31, 1998 and 1997 and the result of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

The following summarizes the relationship between carrying values and market values of investment assets:

	Carrying value	Market value	Unrealized gains (losses)
Balance, December 31, 1997	$ 716,364	$ 698,341	( $ 18,023)
Balance, December 31, 1998	$ 856,299	$1,332,111	$ 475,812

Software

The cost of software is being amortized over the estimated useful life of the asset using the straight line method.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Trust's financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash equivalents. As of December 31, 1998, the trust maintains its cash accounts primarily in a Hawaii bank. The total cash balances are insured by the FDIC up to $100,000 per bank. The trust had cash balances at this bank on December 31, 1998 that exceeded the balance insured by the FDIC in the amount of $547,400.

Note 2 - Note Receivable

On November 24, 1998, the trust invested $250,000 in Best Rescue Systems, Inc. (Best). The invested amount is evidenced by a promissory note bearing interest at .18% per annum, with interest only payable each month. The note is secured by all property, equipment, and assets of Best and all shares of stock in Best owned by Robert Kirkland. Subsequent to December 31, 1998, the trust invested an additional $350,000 into Best on the same basis. The trust has an option to convert its investment into common stock of Best after a due diligence period.
